

Credit Union Digital University Directors' Center

Your Director's Best Resource

Credit union directors face unprecedented demand to respond to the challenging economic climate and improve governance skills.

Over the years, our library of courses has grown to include a series of subjects designed primarily for directors. Course developments were accelerated by the 2010 NCUA regulation related to fiduciary responsibilities, financial literacy requirements, and indemnification of credit union officials.

All of the courses in the Directors' Center are available to you as part of your basic subscription.

We now have the most comprehensive credit union director online training, including courses in:
